Your Host and Instructor

Master Artist Robert Garden started painting at age 7. He "wowed" his teachers by making his own brushes from the hairs of his dog and cat and his paints from berries and clay.

He is an author of numerous books, videos and his signature line of art supplies. Susan, an award-winning artist is co-founder of the Robert Garden School of Art. Their classes run the gamut from cruise ships, senior centers, special needs programs and summer youth camps.

What our students are saying...

"Painting in Port Aransas with Robert and Susan Garden for a week is the highlight of my year. The personal attention and encouragement to improve my painting skills inspires me to try new things. I can see my skill improve from one painting to the next. Thank you for a wonderful week painting, fun on the beach, and great company. I am counting the down until next year."
Linda Comito – Heartland, TX

"Thank you for the wonderful experience of painting with you for the first time; you both helped me learn to express myself and my intimidation vanished. With your instruction and technique "I Too can paint" Thank you!! You are lovely, gracious people who make the newcomers feel welcome surrounded with love, friends and family!"
Joylynn Thomas – Cypress, CA

"This will be my 7th year painting in Port Aransas with Robert. I started very much a beginner and am now painting portraits all because of his excellent teaching skills and warm personality he brings to the classroom. This workshop offers great value for your money. No matter your painting level, you will enjoy the lessons and the beautiful beach. It's a celebration of art, fun, and friendship."
Bonnie Binzer – North Richland Hills

"This is a trip I look forward to each year. Staying in a lovely condo on the beach and painting beautiful scenes from the area. I learn so much from the Garden's instruction with personalized coaching and end up with paintings I love to hang in my home or give to friends and family. Throw in fabulous food, fishing and shopping for a vacation get away with a great group of fun folks."
Kathryn Lancaster – Grand Prairie, TX

"I have been coming to Robert's 'Beaches Retreat' for 25 years. It requires a drive of over 2000 miles, but it's always worth the effort. I've made life-long friends! It is a great way to interact with people who have a love of art and a desire to produce lasting memories with their talent!"
Susan Chermack – Colorado
 Senior Instructor since 1988
